

February 6, 2024

Chair Robert Aderholt
Appropriations LHH&D Su

U.S. House of Representatives education, organizations dedicated to fulfilling the funding promise for the Individuals with Disab Our letter and the priorities it outlineare a repeat of a broader coalition letter we sent that was signed by 59 associations and organizations.

As you move forward with the work to finalize appropriations for federal fiscal year 2 cuts to nondefense discretionary funding (including education), we ask you to priorit critical investment IDEA. Our nation's most vulnerable students should be protected fro

